January

Joshua 3:3&4 "And they commanded the people, saying, "When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore." Israel had wandered long enough. The generation that had doubted God had passed away. It was now time for God's people to go forward, and to claim promise of God. They had never passed that way before.

Another year has passed for all of us, and we have crossed the threshold into a new year. None of us knows what lies ahead. We have no idea of the trials and tribulations that may be faced, the battles that will have to be waged, the life changing decisions that will have to be made, and the victories that will be won. As it was for the people of Israel in the midst of the Jordan river entering unknown territory, we need to REMEMBER the following:

- 1. The Lord has already been there. Josh. 3:4, Rev. 1:8 "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty."
- 2. The Lord will lead us. Josh. 3:3&4, Psa. 32:8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."
- 3. The Lord will be with us. Josh. 3:7&10, Matt. 28:20 "...I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."
- 4. The Lord will provide for us. Josh. 3:5, Psa. 37: 25 "I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread."
- 5. The Lord will protect us. Josh. 3:10, Heb. 13:5&6 "...for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."
- 6. The Lord will prosper us. Josh. 3:17, Psa. 1:3 "And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

Understanding these truths, like the people of Israel, we should RESOLVE to:

- 1. Seek Fervently Josh. 3:9, Matt. 6:33 "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness..."
- 2. Separate Faithfully Josh. 3:5, II Cor. 6:17 "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you." and to:
- 3. Submissively Follow Josh. 3:3, Matt. 16:24 "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."

SAMOA 2019

POSTPONED

In May, we will be working with missionaries in American Samoa and the south expect to be the same ministry there as we have done in Fiji, with school assemblies when possible during the day, and evangelistic meetings in the evenings. We will travel by land, sea, and air on this trip.

Canada Maritimes 2019

We will return in June and July to the beautiful Maritime provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island in Canada to work with eight churches and one Christian camp. We minister there about every three years and have seen many decisions made for the Lord. Praise the Lord! We are praying for a harvest of Canadian souls this summer!

MAY MISSION OPENING

We have postponed our trip to Samoa so that the missionary can attend his son's college graduation. We are, therefore, looking for another field on which to serve this May. We have three to four weeks that we can offer.

When we make these trips, we raise the funds for airfare, field and home expenses so that we can be a blessing and not a burden to the missionaries.

We take portable versions of what we do here in our U.S. meetings. (Chalk art, puppets, ventriloquism, vocal and instrumental music.) While most of our mission work involves evangelistic meetings in local churches, we also do public and Christian school assemblies and minister in Bible colleges.

If you are a missionary and would be interested in having us come in May, please e-mail us immediately to discuss the opportunity. If you cannot use us then, but would be interested in having us come in the future, please let us know. We will be happy to add you to our planning list. If you cannot use us for three or four weeks, ask the other good missionaries on your field you know, if they would like to use us too. We have done this on most of the fields where we have served.

WWWorship

There's a place I go on Sunday - it's the new electric church,
My browser is my Bible, and my worship is a search.
The minister's a monitor; my joy is just a stick.
My pastor's Doctor Google and my fellowship's a click.

The speaker's sure to please me; I've teachers by the heap.
I save a lot on offerings; my worship's very cheap.
It could be Joel or Benny, or John or Pastor Rick.
Broadminded Doctor Google just connects me with a click.

They're rooting out the "Alt-right" and every hateful sect.
They run an algorithm called "Politically Correct".
The fare we're fed by Google is healing for the sick.
We get our foolish phobias corrected as we click.

Its book has more than written names, it also shows my face.
Its author sees my every whim and notes my every taste.
So I will see on Monday new ads from which to pick;
And all my aspirations are as close as one more click.

It has its limitations, when sorrows lay me low.
No help from deacon Youtube - his ministry's a show.
No funerals, no weddings, no visits when I'm sick,
My pastor's Doctor Google, and I worship when I click.

But virtual religion and artificial life,
Will not content the Saviour; it cannot be His wife.
His temple's made of living stones, not pixelated brick.
The Internet's an image, an icon that you click.

Pastor I. C. Kurylyk, Fundamental Bapt. Ch., Summerside, PEI
